

Zonta International Foundation

An obstetric fistula is a severe injury affecting many women who have given birth in regions where appropriate medical care is not easily available. With your help, ZONTA will be able to fund information, prevention, reconstructive surgery and eventually the reintegration of the fistula patients.

A return to life – with your help!

Obstetric Fistula - an UNFPA operated project made possible by the support of the ZONTA International Service Fund.